

Q: Where will you find a dog's sweat glands?
A: On its paws.

Q: How high can a penguin jump?
A: About nine feet.

Q: How long will a housefly live on average?
A: 28 days.

Q: What's the best way to tell a crocodile apart from an alligator?
A: Look at their snouts. A crocodile's is more pointed and an alligator's is wider and more U-shaped.

Q: Which mammal lacks vocal chords?
A: Giraffes.

Q: Where will you find a dog's sweat glands?
A: On its paws.

Q: Where will you find a dog's sweat glands?
A: On its paws.

Q: How many times per second does a woodpecker peck?
A: 20.

Q: While mating, which distinctive shape do dragonfly tails make?
A: A heart.

Q: What do you call a baby goat?
A: A kid.

Q: A housefly hums in a specific musical key. Which is it?
A: The key of F.

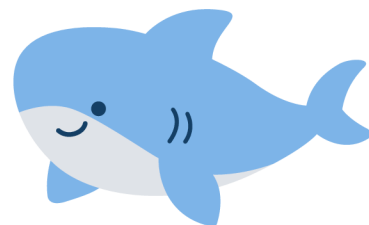

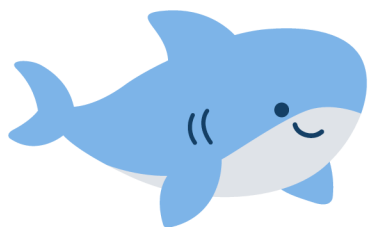

Q: What's the word for a group of hedgehogs?
A: A prickle.

Q: Which sea critter can regrow its arms?
A: A starfish.

Q: How long can a camel survive without any water?
A: More than a week.

Q: Which modern day animal is most closely related to a T-Rex?
A: Chickens.

Q: What type of frog is so translucent that you can see right through it to the bones and organs inside?
A: A glass frog.

Q: How many types of ladybugs are there?
A: Around 5,000.

Q: Which animal smells like popcorn?
A: Binturongs (bearcats).

Q: How many bones can you find inside a shark?
A: Zero.

Q: Where does a turtle breathe from?
A: Its butt.

Q: How much weight can an ant carry?
A: 10-50 times its body weight.

Q: What do you call a group of rhinos?
A: A crash.

Q: Which animal is the most poisonous in the entire world?
A: A golden poison frog.

Q: How many flowers must a honey bee visit to make a pound of honey?
A: Two million.

Q: What's the word for the top of a turtle's shell?
A: Carapace.

Q: How does a female dragonfly avoid an undesirable mate?
A: By playing dead.

Q: What do you call a female fox?
A: A vixen.

Q: Which sea creature sings songs under the water that can travel for miles?

A: Humpback whales.

Q: Who is the “king of the jungle?”

A: Lions.

Q: Which animal can change color to match its environment?

A: A chameleon.

Q: What animal is a symbol of peace?

A: Doves.

Q: What is the tallest animal?

A: Giraffes.

Q: What type of cat has no tail?

A: A manx.

Q: What is the biggest snake in the world?

A: Anaconda.

Q: What is a panda’s favorite food?

A: Bamboo.

Q: Where is a shrimp’s heart?

A: In its head.

Q: What sort of animal is a seahorse?

A: A fish

Q: How many legs does an octopus have?

A: Eight.

Q: Where does a tortoise lay its eggs?

A: In a hole.

Q: What do you call a group of fish?

A: A school.

Q: Who is “man’s best friend?”

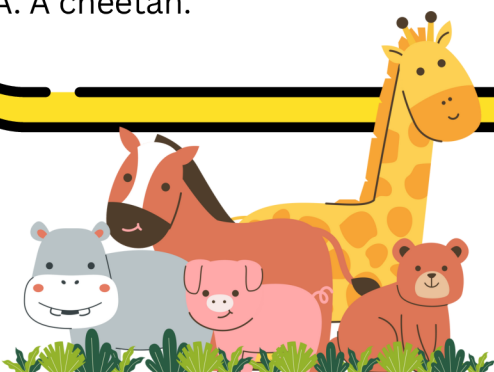

A: Dogs.

Q: What is the fastest animal on land?

A: A cheetah.

Q: What’s the slowest animal?

A: A sloth.

Q: Which type of lion does most of the hunting?

A: A lioness.

Q: What type of bird is associated with New Zealand?

A: A kiwi.

Q: What's the baby stage of a frog called?

A: A tadpole.

Q: What animal is also known as a "sea cow"?

A: A manatee.

Q: How many humps do most camels have?

A: One or two.

Q: What is the smallest type of bird?

A: A hummingbird.

Q: What color is a giraffe's tongue?

A: Purple.

Q: What's the word for a group of crows?

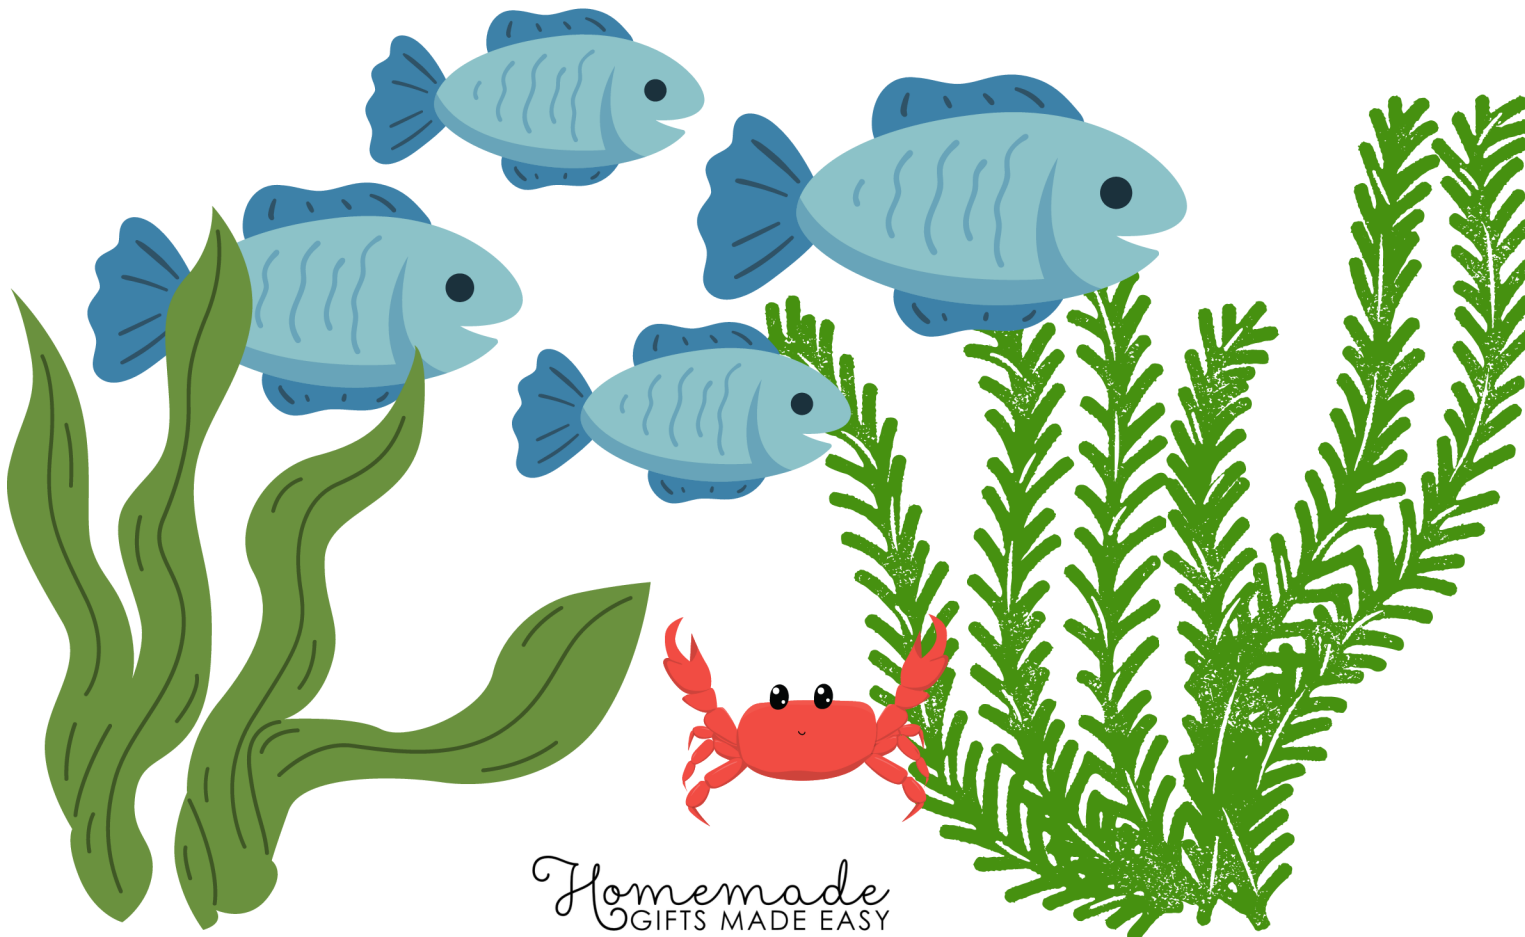

A: A murder.

Q: Are most reptiles cold-blooded or warm-blooded?

A: Cold-blooded.

Q: What's another word for fireflies?

A: Lightning bugs.

Q: Which mammal has the thickest fur?

A: A sea otter.

Q: Which animal moves so slowly algae has time to grow on its back?

A: Sloths.

Q: What is the smallest type of monkey?

A: Pygmy marmoset.

Q: How many stages are there to an insect's metamorphosis?

A: Four.

Q: Koala bears will only eat one thing. What is it?

A: Eucalyptus.

Q: Which animal will laugh if you tickle it?

A: A rat.

Q: What do you call a group of ferrets?

A: A business.

Q: How many eyes does a honeybee have?

A: Five.

Q: How long does it take from the start of pregnancy for an elephant to give birth?

A: 22 months.

Q: How can you tell which bee is the queen?

A: It will have a longer thorax.

Q: How can a cat show you it trusts you?

A: By headbutting you.

Q: How much can a komodo dragon weigh at the upper end?

A: More than 300 pounds.

Q: What type of animal typically found on a farm can get a sunburn?

A: A pig.

Q: A single pufferfish could kill how many people with its toxin?

A: 30.

Q: How far can a frog jump?

A: More than 20 times its body length.

Q: What is a group of kangaroos called?

A: A troop.

Q: What does a caterpillar eat as soon as it hatches?

A: Its shell.

Q: Honeybees and one other insect can recognize human faces. What is the other insect?

A: Wasps.

Q: Which animal has the highest blood pressure?

A: Giraffes.

Q: How can you tell how old a lion is?

A: By looking at its nose. It will change color over the course of the lion's life.

Q: What does a snake use to taste and smell?

A: The roof of its mouth.

Q: What is a kit?

A: A baby rabbit.

Q: What's another name for the King Cobra?

A: The Hamadryad.

Q: What is a Portuguese Man O' War?

A: A type of jellyfish.

Q: What's the largest rodent in the world?

A: A capybara.

Q: What is the largest bird in the world?

A: An ostrich.

Q: Which country brought domestic cats to America?

A: England.

Q: What is the word for a male turkey?

A: A gobbler.

Q: What is a rhino's horn made of?

A: Keratin, which also helps form hair and nail tissues.

Q: How long does a mayfly live?

A: A few hours to a day.

Q: Which animal has the longest migration route in the world?

A: Arctic terns.

Q: Which sea creature can change its gender?

A: Oysters.

Q: How many eyes does a caterpillar have?

A: 12.

Q: What is the difference between something being poisonous and something being venomous?

A: Venom is injected directly into you, like when a snake bites you, but poison can be ingested, inhaled, and absorbed through skin.

Q: How many expressions can a horse make?

A: 17.

Q: Which two mammals lay eggs?

A: A duck-billed platypus and a spiny anteater.

Q: What is a clowder?

A: A group of cats.

Q: What animal requires zero sleep?

A: Bullfrogs.

Q: How heavy is North America's largest water fowl, the trumpeter swan?

A: Almost 30 pounds.

Q: How long will seahorses mate for?

A: Life.

Q: What color is an elephant hawk-moth?

A: Pink.

Q: Which animal has 32 brains?

A: A leech.

Q: How long have dragonflies been around?

A: 300 million years.

Q: What do you call a male swan?

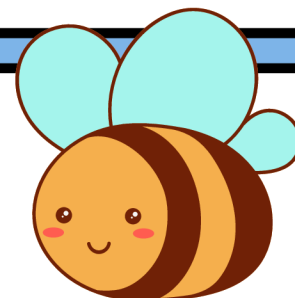

A: A cob.

Q: What's the word for a group of pandas?

A: An embarrassment.

Q: From how far away can wolves smell their prey?

A: Almost two miles.

Q: What is the population of the United States?
A: 3,000-6,000.

Q: What's the fastest animal in the water?

A: A sailfish.

Q: What is a group of parrots?

A: A pandemonium.

Q: Which animal will go invisible on infrared cameras?

A: A polar bear.

Q: How many species of ants can you find on Earth?

A: More than 10,000.

Q: Which bird's eye is bigger than its brain?

A: An ostrich's.

Q: How fast does a hummingbird's wings beat?

A: 1,200 beats per minute.

Q: How long can a snail sleep?

A: Three years.

Q: Which animal has pink sweat?

A: A hippo.

Q: What do you call a group of pigs?

A: A drift.

Q: How much weight can a dung beetle haul?

A: 1,141 times its body weight.

